Responsible for building effective relationships at all levels both within Housing Services, with other services, customers and partner organisations.

Responsible for the effective management of project staff in order to successfully deliver the desired outcomes.

Responsible for working with the Housing Services management team to highlight additional project resource for specific requirements throughout the duration of the project.

Influence, enable and manage key stakeholder relationships.

Responsible for ensuring that communication with all stakeholders is properly planned so the impact of any proposed change is fully understood as part of the service transformation/improvement work.

Support the development of business cases, options studies and investment appraisals for projects to support evidence-based decision making.

Develop and coordinate appropriate project governance for each of the projects.

Identify project deliverables and work with relevant staff to plan the resource and agree the implementation plan for the projects

Determine the process for monitoring, measuring and reporting on the progress of projects as appropriate

Identify and proactively manage risks, including the preparation of mitigation plans and reporting any areas of concern to the appropriate Governance Board

Challenge existing business practices through the development and specification of improved/redesigned ways of enhanced service performance to deliver savings and benefits.

Liaise with colleagues across the council to ensure that that project is strategically aligned ensuring projects are delivered in a co-ordinated and managed way and duplication is avoided.

Oversee and monitor the budget for projects and report any concerns to the Programme Manager.

Determine the objectives and measures upon which the project will be evaluated at its completion, including the development of benefits realisation plans.

Attend meetings and Programme Boards as relevant for their projects and as directed by the Programme Manager.

Responsible for driving effective relationships at all levels both within their projects, with other services, customers and partner organisations.

To take responsibility for the development and implementation of their own personal development plan, and own continued professional development in those areas relevant to the role within the council.

Undertake other duties which might be reasonably requested from time to time as directed by Programme Manager or Departmental Management Team.
